

Seneca Street Community Development Corporation
1218 Seneca Street, Buffalo, NY 14210

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fundraiser May 19 to Benefit Seneca Street CDC Programs for Children
Comedy, Basket Raffle Planned at Rob's Comedy Playhouse

May 8, 2017 – An evening of stand up and improv comedy, coupled with basket raffles, auctions and a 50-50 drawing are all part of a fundraiser planned for May 19 at Rob's Comedy Playhouse, 1340 North Forest Road, Williamsville, to benefit the Seneca Street Community Development Corporation (CDC).

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. and the comedy show starts at 8 p.m.

Seneca Street CDC, 1218 Seneca St., Buffalo, provides after school and summer programs for children and teens, and other community outreach, in the Seneca Babcock community of Buffalo.

Tickets are $25 each and include admission and two cocktails.

Tickets may be purchased at senecastreetcdc.org under the Shop tab, via email at emilywilkinscdc@gmail.com or at the event. For more information, contact Emily Wilkins at (716) 939-3501.

The after-school program runs Monday through Thursday during the school year for children and teens and concludes each day with a hot meal. The six-week summer program features educational and engaging programming that includes weekly field trips, a two-week reading camp and other theme weeks. According to student data, 68 percent of the children who attend the program come from homes with an annual income below $25,000 and 13 percent of students' families earn $5,000 or less annually.

###

For more information about this release, please contact: Rose Caldwell, 716-713-9548.